

English

for Newcomers to Canada

Assisting newcomers to Canada in their transition to the workplace.

The General Arts and Science – Enhanced Language Training for Employment certificate program is a FREE program that teaches enhanced English to new Canadians to help them enter the workplace.

Niagara College Canada

niagaracollege.ca/elte
niagaracollege.ca/oslt

More than any other school in Canada, we focus on developing both English language skills and cultural integration.

Enhanced Language Training for Employment (ELTE)

|        |    |       |             |        |        |                        |
|--------|----|-------|-------------|--------|--------|------------------------|
| Campus | NL | Start | Sep/Jan/May | Length | Varies | niagaracollege.ca/elte |
|--------|----|-------|-------------|--------|--------|------------------------|

Full-Time Program Features include:

- › The full-time program is fully-funded and includes tuition, books and transportation assistance
- › Two semesters of study including Advanced English training with Canadian preparation courses leading to a General Arts and Science certificate
- › Canadian culture and workplace studies with access to academic support from English language instructors

Part-Time Program Features Include:

- › The part-time program is a partially funded and includes tuition, books and on-campus parking
- › One semester of study including three language courses
- › Flexible evening class options
- › Classes run Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday: 6:30 p.m.-9:15 p.m.

Eligibility:

- › You must be a permanent resident, protected person or convention refugee of Canada.
- › Qualified candidates will be asked to attend an interview as part of the selection process
- › Eligible candidates must demonstrate an achieved level of 5-8 through the Canadian Language Benchmark Assessment or LINC Community class

TERM COURSE TITLE

ONE Career Development
Professional Writing Skills
Understanding Professional English
Effective Oral Communication
Intercultural Communications
From Cradle to Grave: Citizenship in Canada

TWO I-Think: The Science of Thinking and Problem Solving Communication Foundations
Professional Writing Skills Advanced
Equity, Diversity and Inclusion in Canada
Workplace Culture
Work Placement

ELTE Part-Time Curriculum

Professional Writing Skills
Understanding Professional English
Effective Oral Communication

Occupational Specific Language Training (OSLT)

|        |    |       |             |        |        |                        |
|--------|----|-------|-------------|--------|--------|------------------------|
| Campus | NL | Start | Sep/Jan/May | Length | Varies | niagaracollege.ca/oslt |
|--------|----|-------|-------------|--------|--------|------------------------|

Learn to speak effective English for your career in business, health or technology. NC offers Occupation-Specific Language Training (OSLT) courses to qualified new Canadian immigrants who already have experience or training in business, health sciences, human services or technology. These are FREE part-time courses with on-line and in-class instruction.

Program Highlights

- › Understand workplace culture in your occupation/sector
- › Interact effectively with colleagues, clients and supervisors
- › Give and receive information by email and telephone
- › Interview and network effectively

Eligibility:

- › You must be a permanent resident, protected person or convention refugee of Canada.
- › Qualified candidates will be asked to attend an interview as part of the selection process
- › Eligible candidates must demonstrate an achieved level of 5-8 through the Canadian Language Benchmark Assessment or LINC Community class

PROGRAM OUTLINE

Do you have training or experience in:

Technology English

- › Engineering (electrical, electronics, mechanical, industrial and information)
- › Architecture
- › Environmental Technology
- › Information and Computer Technology

Business English

- › Entrepreneurship
- › Accounting/Finance
- › Sales & Marketing
- › Hospitality

Health Sciences English

- › Nursing
- › Personal Support Work
- › Dental Hygiene
- › Medical Radiation Technology
- › Sleep Technology

To learn more please contact:

Allison Radko

Project Manager, Immigrant Language Training Programs, School of Access Studies

 t. 905-641-2252 ext. 4188

 e. aradko@niagaracollege.ca